Dear Reader,

Citynet's November newsletter is here with some of the month's highlights.

Having a sneak peek at the news headlines, most of the stories continued to dwell on the never ending Brexit battle which keeps dividing the UK, while other headlines brought the nation together on the centenary of armistice day, remembering and honouring those who sacrificed themselves to secure and protect our freedom!

Two very different events that seem to share the same common goal! Well, on the Brexit front, I guess we'll have to wait and see...

Citynet acquires motor and non-motor wholesale business of Wrightsure Insurance Group

Wholesale specialist Citynet Insurance Brokers are delighted to announce the acquisition of the London Market Wholesale business of Wrightsure Insurance Group.

Andrew Walsh, Managing Director at Citynet added: "Wrightsure is well respected as a London market broker both for Motor and Non-Motor business. Our acquisition of their Wholesale business is an excellent move for us and further enables Citynet to reaffirm its position as a leading Lloyd's and London market wholesale Broker"...
