

Courier Insurance Solutions

If your clients don't have Goods in Transit cover, it's worth considering, courier insurance as they are responsible for any loss, damage, or theft that may occur while delivering goods between businesses and customers.

With one of the largest motor fleet broking teams in the London Market, Citynet has access to no less than ten courier markets in London including wholesale capacity that is exclusive to Citynet.

Courier insurance is essential for businesses with high daily mileage and time-sensitive, multi-drop deliveries. We work with markets that embrace Risk Management initiatives, including camera and telematic offerings that may potentially be leading to reduced premiums for your clients.
